Ted,

I would personally like to thank you and your company for the products, information, knowledge, and most of all the excellent service you have provided to our company. Crawford Door Sales has been using your products for several years and we have been very pleased with everything we have ever purchased or received from BD Loops!

One of the big reasons we have and will continue to do business with BD Loops is the product innovation we have come to rely and count on. We have always admired your business practices and the contributions you and your company have provided to this industry.

Please keep up the excellence as I know you will. Your efforts are seen by everyone who does business with you.

Thanks again,

Scott Schults
